Sai Ram.

Starting of the new academic year 2020-21 of the Institute will be delayed on account of the current pandemic situation which is prevailing in the world. Hence, the Academic Year will not start on 1st June, 2020.

We will announce subsequently in the website our revised academic calendar, the date of reopening of the Institute for the new Academic Year, schedule for the entrance examinations and also schedule of the End Semester examinations for the current students, based on the developments in the nation and the notifications we receive from the UGC/AICTE.

Stay home and stay safe.
